The 70s

Amelia Aguilar Grade 12

The 70s was a tremendous time for America. It followed the 60s as women, LGBTQ+ and other minorities fought for their rights in the states. During the 70s the New Right movement was created. This movement started the decline of “traditional” social norms and celebrated the free market. New Right conservatives fought against hush taxes, environmental regulations, highway speed limits, national park policies, and affirmative action and school desegregation plans. The fight to protect the environment from all sorts of toxins continued as well. The first Earth Day was celebrated in 1970. Congress also passed the National Environment Policy the same year. The 70s had so many historical events happen.

Hurricane Ian

Janelle Plante Grade 9

Hurricane Ian “extremely dangerous” eyewall was moving onshore in southwest Florida late Wednesday morning, just hours after it became a Category 4 storm. It was packing sustained winds of 155 mph, making it just shy of a Category 5 hurricane, which is the most powerful storm possible. About 2.5 million people were under mandatory evacuation orders as the hurricane started lashing the Florida peninsula with heavy rain and tropical storm force winds in the early hours of Wednesday. Life threatening impacts are expected, and power outages are occurring. Ian tore across western Cuba on Tuesday with sustained winds up to 125 mph. Damage from the storm knocked Cuba's power grid offline, leaving the entire country in the dark Wednesday morning.

Origin Story

Kadin White Grade 9

Emily was your average teenage girl until she was visited by an alternate version of Kadin White from Universe 179-B, 179-B is a universe in which teleportation is possible with the form of portals and it is also possible to travel to alternate universes. The universe that Emily is from is known as Universe 17-1a, 17-1a is a universe where humanity was never able to stop the end of the world and because of that the version of me on that world became a black circular being with the power to travel across the multiverse but that doesn't matter. Because his main mission is to get ahold of a blue crystal, and that crystal is what can give him his human form back but Emily is using said crystal to find a cure for Kadin and it turns out that the crystal can create portals, so she took advantage of the crystals power to travel across the multiverse! But then she travels to our universe meets Alastor and he would take the portal device to travel to the universe known as 627-01a where humans stopped global warming and fixed the earth, and he took the plans to go to mars so he could destroy the universe and of course was trapped there for the rest of time.
